

WASHINGTON - Congressman John W. Olver (1st District) released the following remarks today:

"Today, abortion opponents were handed a victory in their continual push to overturn a woman's right to

Seven years ago, a highly similar case, Stenberg v. Carhart, was argued before a much different Sup

Fast forward to present day and the case is the same, only the make-up of the Court has changed. J

I am very concerned with the consequences that will come from the decision that was released today.

I am pro-choice. Please be assured that I will continue to support any legislative avenues that may be